Section Policy

Presents the results of scientific research based on theoretical or experimental hypotheses, which means an original contribution to knowledge in any of the areas of interest of the journal. It relates the way to delimit the research question, the way to put it to the test (statistical analysis of the experiment, disciplinary protocols) and the confrontation of the data generated with the current literature. The acceptable range for the document setting is 4,500 to 7,500 words.

Submission Requirements

You must read and acknowledge that you've completed the requirements below before proceeding.

- All editorial guidelines, rules and policies have been read.
- The text adheres to the stylistic and bibliographic requirements summarized in the Guidelines of the author.
- When registering the article, the metadata spaces were filled in with the complete information of each of the authors, including name, email, affiliation and ORCID.

URL or DOI links have been added in the references that require them. Note: If your references do not require it, you will still need to check this box.

- El archivo de envío está en formato Microsoft Word, y se ciñe a la plantilla de sometimiento.
- I attach as a separate file the Declaration of originality signed in the Archives section complementary.
- I attach as a separate file the Copyright agreement and Conflict of interest statement signed in the Supplementary Files section.
